Robert Amory, Esq.
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Amory:

This will confirm my telephonic invitation to address the Wisconsin National Guard Association convention banquet on Saturday evening the 29th of August.

May I suggest that your address be in the nature of an appreciation of the "cold war" situation along with a reference to the role of the reserve components in our overall national strategy. Thirty to forty minutes would be appropriate by way of duration. The audience will be mixed and in all likelihood some press representatives will be present.

The convention will be held in Green Bay, Wisconsin, an interesting and historic community. I am enclosing a suggested schedule of flights having in mind that you will probably choose to arrive sometime Saturday afternoon and leave Green Bay sometime late Sunday afternoon. This would allow a Sunday tour of the Door County Peninsula, one of the more attractive areas of the state.

I appreciate the ground rules with respect to compensation and, therefore, I propose an honorarium in the amount of $250 in lieu of expenses. However, we will handle this matter in any way you may elect.

would be from 1.
PSAS*

I would appreciate word from you with respect to the engagement to include a specific title for the address and a glossy print to be used for publicity purposes.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

C. P. Runge
